Walsh, who are leaving the district to reside in Calgary. Mrs. J. R. Banta on behalf of the Madden Ladies' Club presented Mr. and Mrs. Walsh with an electric reading lamp. Mrs. Walsh fittingly replied.

Howard P. Wright acted as chairman and on opening the meeting called on the member, Frank Laut, to speak. Mr. Laut gave a short resume of what the Independents had done since the election and stated that a resolutions will be brought up before the coming Convention. He also said that two delegates from every Independent constituency would be elected to attend the convention at Edmonton and the defeated Independent candidate in every riding would be invited to attend.

Mr. O. Biggar was the delegate elected to represent the constituency along with a delegate to be chosen by the committee representing Banff, Cochrane and Exshaw.

THE CANADIAN LEGION WAR SERVICES is endeavoring to obtain, by donation approximately 60,000 lbs of turkey, so that the troops in England may enjoy a good Canadian dinner.

Although it will be too late for Xmas, they can enjoy a good dinner with all the trimmings later on.

Arrangements will be made for a post card to be sent from England, from the different units, addressed to the donors, thanking them for the feed.

Anyone wishing to donate one or more turkeys, please get in touch with Comrade Mossop at the Post Office or with president Harry May, phone R503.

Ing in Calgary, when Doris, daughter of Mr. Robert Hall and the late Mrs. Hall of Calgary, was united in marriage to Mr. George McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. McDonald of Crossfield. Miss Gladys McDonald, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and Mr. Edward Hall of Bindloss, was the best man.

The happy couple will reside in Crossfield.

Anglican Confirmation Service

Impressive confirmation services were held in the Church of the Ascension on Monday evening, December 2nd, with Bishop Sherman officiating and Rev. J. R. Davies of Ogden acting as chaplain.

Looking very nice in their white costume and veils, which are always worn for this service, Joan and S. M. Smith of Carstairs, Norma Ruth Waller of Olds and Lillian May Jones of Crossfield were presented for confirmation. Miss MacLure was organist for the occasion.

The Skating Season Opens

The skating season got underway last Thursday and a good crowd of skaters was on hand to enjoy this popular sport. Due to the mild weather, the ice has been too soft for use since Monday night.

The first hockey match of the season was staged Saturday afternoon between the Crossfield Flyers (14 years and under) and a similar team from Carstairs, the Flyers winning in a 4-3 score. Don Stevens scored 3 of the local goals and Ross Bills the remaining one. First practice of the High School team was held after school Monday.

District Pioneer Dies Suddenly

Another link with the homestead period in this district was broken Monday morning, December 2nd, when John Hillyard Oneil, 80, passed away at his farm home.

Born at Birr, Ontario, on February 12, 1860, Mr. Oneil later lived at Harrietsville, Ontario, where he was married to Ann Eliza Rowse on September 18, 1882. Thirty-six years ago he felt the call of the west and with his wife and family, arrived at Crossfield on April 29, 1904, taking a homestead southeast of town where he had lived ever since.

In spite of his years, Mr. Oneil was enjoying fairly good health until recently, and on his occasional visits to town enjoyed a chat with friends and oldtimers. Though not ill, he had failed considerably during the last few weeks and passed away in his sleep Monday morning.

He is survived by five sons, James R. of Cremona, Hillyard M., Garnet and Kenneth of Crossfield, and Ivan at Creston, B. C.; three daughters, Mrs. Frank Ruddy of Crossfield, Mrs. C. J. Lawrence of Powell River, B. C., and Mrs. R. Snell of Toronto; 22 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his wife last March.

He was a member of the local Old-Timers' Association and was highly respected in the community where he had been a good friend and neighbor during his long residence.

Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. A. D. Currie at the Anglican Church on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Lady Curlers Elect Officers

MAKE EVERY DOLLAR SERVE YOUR DISTRICT—

Christmas time— is Gift time. Will you keep in mind the local stores this year, or will you be sending away those precious dollars that mean so much to your community? Remember your local stores have purchased Xmas merchandise for you, and yours, and your orders will be appreciated. Lasting gifts carry your good wishes throughout the year, which means your money has been well invested. Buy wisely, and locally.

WHAT DO YOU THINK—

Considerable discussions out in the open have carried enough weight to bring the idea to the attention of other citizens who might be in favor of having a picture show in Crossfield.

Calgary of course is only a short distance for those who are fortunate enough to have a car and the price for extras when they make the trip. But what about those who cannot make the trip?

Some picture proposition is possible, and is worthy of further consideration.

In past years Crossfield was on a circuit for a weekly show, but from what we gather it was a flop. Should we leave it at that and consider ourselves beat, or go ahead and do something about it.

WHAT IT DOES FOR OTHERS, IT CAN DO FOR YOU—

Every business executive no matter where he dwells will admit that in order to promote sales he must contact buyers—how does he contact these buyers—does he use the phone—perhaps, does he call on them in their homes— seldom. He naturally turns to newspaper advertising—the only way to convey your message into the home without fuss or confusion.

This day and age means tighter money, and spending the family budget is done very carefully, through channels that open to prospective buyers details and price without argument. The answer is advertising. Buy more space and cut the waste in your business now, today.

THE DANGER SIGN—

Mussolini's face must be red these days for his partnership with the Nazi gang is anything but healthy; his famous battalions are seeing red—and his balance sheet is hopelessly in the red.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. Strange

From information which the "Crop Testing Plan" is receiving, it seems evident that farmers are hesitating about making their usual plans to purchase some better seed to improve this coming crop.

One is able to understand this hesitation, for so many different ideas are being expressed about what should be done about the next crop. Some think there may be a complete "Wheat Holiday" or that acreage will be drastically reduced by government control. Some even think, when they see the great surplus, that there is no future for wheat growing.

For my own part I do not hold with these views. I believe that almost at (1) the present acreage should again be sown, for we shall most probably have a market this coming year in Canada and abroad for some 215 million bushels, which would require a crop of 250 million bushels; and even the present acreage could easily grow a smaller crop than this.

If a sensible peace is made, the world will require in the future, I believe, more Canadian wheat than it has taken in the past, and so I suggest that farmers should not hesitate to carry on as usual with the plan of using some good seed in order to maintain and to improve the quality, hence the value, of their wheat crop.

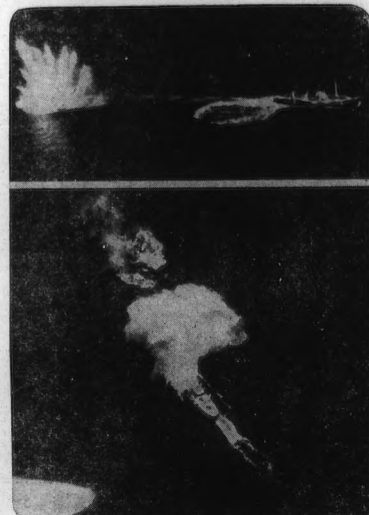

Following factors have tended to raise price: Unoccupied France is in need of 30 million bushels of wheat and also a large amount of stock feed—Broomhall estimates Argentina's exportable wheat surplus at only 9 million bushels—Britain is committed to take 120 million bushels of Canadian wheat next year—Indications show a feed grains shortage developing in Western Canada.

Following factors have tended to lower price: Wheat seeding is progressing favorably in the Balkan countries—Winter crop acreage in Europe expected to be normal or better than normal—Wheat harvesting is progressing in South Africa—Russia recently exported a quantity of wheat, presumably to Greece.

CLEVER ARMY DOCTORS

HAVE IMPROVED A CHEAP CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Faced with rheumatism, the scourge of armies, British Army doctors have found how to give to sufferers first-class treatment with the most primitive of apparatus.

Rheumatic conditions call for three forms of treatment: warmth, rest, and purgation.

Under normal circumstances rest is given in the hospital beds; warmth from elaborate medicinal bathing establishments. Now in the field, treatment quite as efficacious is provided by placing the patient in an ordinary canvas chair and wrapped in an army blanket with a copious stream of steam from a pipe led under his wrapping from a Primus stove.

Since radiant heat lamps are not practical policies on active service, Army doctors have improvised in their stead cast iron heated over a Primus stove and then set before a sheet of metal to act as a reflector.

Next, mud is mixed with olive oil and glycerine to form packs and sand is baked in pans and applied to the affected parts.

These primitive methods of field medicine have yielded results that compare favorably with those obtained under the best conditions of peace-time civilian medical treatment.

A gallant young husband was trying to teach his new and nervous wife drive a car. They were on a narrow country road and the wife had been driving for only a short time when she exclaimed: "Take the wheel quickly darling—here comes a tree!"

GERMINATION TESTS

Farmers in the prairie provinces will be interested to learn that this Department has decided to offer germination tests of field crop seeds as a free service. It is felt that the tests may be thoroughly reliable, modern thermostatically controlled germinators are being installed. The equipment has been designed in consultation with officials of the Production Service, Plant Products Division, of the Dominion Department of Agriculture. Reports on samples submitted for testing will include remarks on the presence of weed seeds and general "soundness." Samples of seed should be taken to the nearest country elevator belonging to any of the line elevator companies associated with the work of this Department. These companies are listed on most of the publications issued from this office.

Sufficient material will be provided by 2-ounce samples, but these must be delivered at the earliest possible date. It is necessary that our laboratory be in full operation by January 1st in order to avoid congestion in March.

In addition to the germination tests, we shall be glad to make growing tests and to report on the purity and suitability of the variety for the district concerned. If the growing test is desired in addition to germination, it is only necessary to inform the local grain buyer.

November 17th 1940

line like a little Verdun against the German tanks and Stukas; British soldiers of the rear guard at Dunkerque and British civilians manning motor boats to take the defeated but not beaten army home. British men and women—ordinary plain-faced people who used to make a fuss about a cut finger—crawling out of their bombarded homes with the magnificent gesture of the uprooted thumb; the crew of the Jervis Bay fighting their unarmored vessel against the German pocket battleship; the airmen of the R.A.F. going up in all weathers, against all odds, day after day, night after night, to guard the homes and shrines of Britain: the bomb squads methodically removing time-bombs that may explode at any moment.

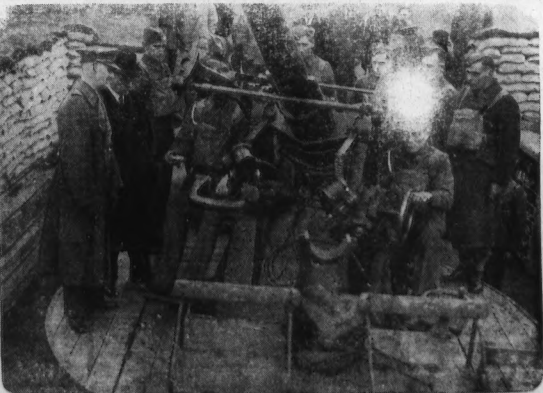

It is the glory and splendor of these tremendous days that the brave deeds are done without hope of reward or fame. The commanding officer has no monopoly of the precious wealth of courage. It springs up everywhere, from the immortal turf of ancient castles and from the mud and dust of streets. In the captive countries it must still exist. We know that men have died this year for liberty in Czechoslovakia, in Poland, in Norway, in the Netherlands, in Belgium, in France, in China; in the tumbled mountains of Western Greece, in many a weary mile of sea. The whole earth, in the noble words of the old Greek who would be proud of his countrymen today, is their sepulchre. Though no monument can carry all their names, their fame lives for evermore.

Shall we deny courage to the German fliers who come over London? Not at all. They have testified their willingness not only to destroy and to kill but to die. But this courage of the free is a different thing. It is not personal loyalty to a leader. It is faith, a living faith in freedom. Where that faith did not exist soldiers laid down their arms and generals made base surrenders. Where it lives, and grows, and flames, no battle ever ends in a final defeat. Is democracy degenerate? Look around you. The gifted, the great, the humble, the unknown have given the answer, are giving it now as these words are written and read, in their own hearts' blood.

Village Council Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Village Council was held in the Fire Hall Monday evening Dec. 2, with Mayor Wood and Councillor Hurt present. Minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The students' season skating tickets (over 14 years) were discussed and the council approved the lowering of the charge from $2.00 to $1.50. Skating will be permitted Sunday afternoons from 2 to 6. No hockey sticks will be allowed during this period.

According to the Village Act, it will not be necessary to elect another councillor to replace the late Councillor Amussen, until after the annual meeting.

The mayor read the annual Inspector's report of the Village. This report is a general check-up of the Village affairs, dealing with a survey of the complete routine of the Village. The report was very satisfactory with a few suggested changes. Penalties that were recorded in January and June, will now, according to the new act, be posted in December and July.

All accounts approved were ordered paid.

British Railways Take National Job

The war has given to Britain's railways and railwaymen a huge task, vital to the national effort. They are doing it magnificently.

Transport of troops, of war material, and of industrial freight makes enormous demands on lines, rolling stock, man power and organization. Plans have to be made, abandoned, changed and put into operation at almost no notice.

Railway working in many of its aspects is complicated by the black-out and other security measures.

Finally, enemy bombs not only make railway work a hazardous front line duty, but they sometimes cause damage to lines that must be repaired as rapidly as possible, often under difficult and dangerous conditions.

Here are a few instances showing how efficiently these jobs are done. Four bombs fell on a suburban line at 1:30 p.m. blocking three lines. By 3:15 p.m. two lines were open for traffic.

A complicated junction near a large station was bombed at 4 p.m. but before 6:30 p.m. the whole of the lines, points and signalling had been examined and repairs were made in time to cope with the bulk of the evening business traffic.

An incendiary bomb recently hit a suburban train, setting it on fire. The guard's log read "train fired by enemy bomb, fire extinguished en route, passengers behaved splendidly, little delay."

COMING EVENTS

The annual meeting of the Floral U. F. W. A. will be held at the home of Mrs. Lee Ableman, Wednesday, December 11, at 2:30 sharp. This is an important meeting and a good turn out is expected.

N. S. & D. Social Evening will be held Thursday, Dec. 12. Leap Year Dance. Ladies pay, men provide. Everybody welcome.

A moving picture show is being sponsored by the United Church Sunday School on Tuesday, Dec. 10, at 8 p.m. in the church. Films of the Royal visit to Canada last year, Mickey Mouse, Laurel and Hardy, and other films will be shown, together with a short musical program. Come and help the Sunday School. Adults 25 cents, children 15 cents.

One evening recently, an exploded bomb fell a short distance from a main line signal box. Train services were temporarily suspended while military experts made an inspection. They were of the opinion that the bomb was of a type that could not be disposed of immediately. But the railway didn't wait for the bomb to be taken away before restoring the service. Someone at once suggested that a screen of wagons placed on the up line would make possible single line working on the down line. This was done; thirty high-sided wagons loaded with coal and shunted on to the up line.

Volunteers were then called for to work freight traffic past the danger spot. The traffic and locomotive running staffs volunteered to a man. The crews of down trains from London showed the same spirit. They refused to leave their trains, although volunteer relief drivers were ready to take over for the dangerous section of the run.

As a result of the courage shown by these railwaymen, twenty-four important freight, newspaper and fish trains were worked past the danger spot before the bomb was removed, when ordinary train services were restored.
